PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, South Dakota farmers have taken their place among the builders of a great country through their ability to produce and feed and clothe the people of the United States and the world; and

WHEREAS, farm and ranch accidents continue to cost the lives of South Dakota citizens, prevent others from continuing a productive life and cause unnecessary wastes of human and economic resources so vital to our state; and

WHEREAS, all farm and ranch families should work for safer rural communities by eliminating those hazards and unsafe practices that cause or contribute to accidents; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, do hereby call on the people of the state to observe the week beginning July 23, 1967, as-- and urge all families who live on farms and ranches, and all groups and persons serving or allied with agriculture, to unite for safety, and apply full energy and determination to the task of reducing accidents at work, in homes, at recreation and on the roadways.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 12th day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.

NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR
